

Physics OHSAS 18001 Update

Physics Department Injuries

Physics OHSAS 18001 Update

- Next Audit: Week of September 19
- Registration Audit in November

OHSAS 18001 Q&A

- What are some of the points in BNL's ESSH Policy?
 - Know that there is an ESSH Policy
 - Read the "Little Green Card"
 - Posted in 510 Lobby & on web sites
- Who are the OHSAS Reps?
 - Physics: Ron Gill & Mike Zarcone
 - BNL: Jim Tarpinian
- What is OHSAS 18001?
 - A management system for a high quality ESH system
 - Plan – Do – Check – Correct
- What are the important components in OHSAS?
 - Worker involvement in all aspects of safety
 - Communication between workers and supervisors
 - ESH Committee & Group Safety Coordinators are a Physics resource
- What is a Job Risk Assessment (JRA)?
 - A process to identify hazards, determine risk levels, and ensure controls are in place before work begins
- Have the risks of your work been evaluated?
 - Yes, risks of all work in the Physics Department has been evaluated in the JRA process
 - JRAs relevant to my work are on the Physics OHSAS web site